Coral Beach & Tennis Club
BERMUDA

A Chaine Christmas Carol

by Michael Scott and Charles Dickens

Saturday, December 5, 2026, 7pm

Coral Beach Club

Amuse Bouche

A Gift from Chef

Stave One - Christmas Eve Bells

Bacon-Wrapped Medjool Dates, Goat Cheese, Figgy Syrup, Beetroot, Pistachios

Christmas Eve in London. The miserly Ebenezer Scrooge scoffs at the season, turns away his nephew Fred and two charity collectors, and grudgingly gives Bob Cratchit the day off.

Stave Two - Ghost of Christmas Past

Lemon Sole Grenobloise, Spinach, Lemon Caper Beurre Blanc

The Ghost of Christmas Past shows Scrooge his lonely boyhood, the joyful parties of his old employer Mr Fezziwig, and the fiancée Belle who left him for loving money more than her.

Stave Three - Ghost of Christmas Present

Wild Game "Pie" Quail Eggs, Matson Sauce

The Ghost of Christmas Present takes Scrooge to Fred's party and the Cratchits' humble feast, where he meets Tiny Tim, and warns that the boy will not survive unless things change.

Stave Four – Ghost of Christmas Yet to Come

Chilled White Tomato Consommé with Tomato Granité

The silent Ghost of Christmas Yet to Come shows Scrooge a death no one mourns, the Cratchits grieving Tiny Tim, and a neglected grave bearing his own name. Scrooge vows to change.

Stave Five - Scrooge's Awakening

Braised Ox Cheek, Parsnip Risotto, Roscoff Onion Tempura

Scrooge wakes on Christmas morning a changed man. He sends a prize turkey to the Cratchits, joins Fred's party, and from then on keeps Christmas in his heart all year.

Tiny Tim's Wish

"And so, as Tiny Tim observed, God Bless Us, Every One!"

Paris-Brest Profiterole, Hazelnut Praline Mousse, Warm Grand Marnier Chocolate Sauce